COVID-19 UPDATE

City Reports One Additional Death, Reminds Public of Testing Options

EL PASO, Texas — The City of El Paso Department of Public Health (DPH) is reporting one (1) additional COVID-19 death for a total number of 78. The death is a female patient in her 50s with underlying health conditions.

“We are once again sending our deepest condolences to the family of another member of our community,” said Dr. Hector Ocaranza, City/County Local Health Authority. “And once again we are urging the public to please heed our warnings and develop those healthy habits that we continuously repeat; because there is no vaccine for this virus at this time to protect us. The best option we have is prevention.”

El Paso is also reporting 81 new COVID-19 cases bringing the county’s total number to 2,704. To-date 1,602 people have recovered from COVID-19. There are 1,024 active cases within the county.
